Club By-Laws pertaining to membership and committee

This document gives further details about the management / administration of club membership and committee positions

These by-laws are to be read in conjunction with the Rootes Group Car Club constitution and rules.

- All memberships expire at midnight on December 31st of the year up to which the member has paid their subscription.
- A member may choose to pay for more than one years' subscription at a time.
- Typically, a new member joining from September 1st is granted membership until December 31st of the following year without any extra cost.
- The executive committee's tenure begins on January 1st of the year after they were elected, and lasts until December 31st of that year. Given that the AGM is usually held in September, this allows for a few months of transition from the previous committee to the new committee.
- There is no maximum term that a person can serve on the committee
- There is no maximum number of times that a person can serve on the committee
